

YOUTH CAMP CODE OF CONDUCT

GENERAL INFORMATION

The standards we have are Biblically based and will be upheld by all campers and visitors. Knowing these policies before you come to our camp will help you decide whether this is the place for you to attend or send your young people. Following these rules while at the campground will help you to have a more enjoyable visit. Please read them carefully.

ALL CAMPERS CODE OF CONDUCT

Campers are not to bring beverages, tobacco in any form, radios, tape or CD players, computers, cell phones, books or magazines, knives, guns, or weapons of any kind. No video games, fireworks, or pets. Shirts with questionable pictures or emblems are also not allowed. Mixed swimming is not permitted. No medication is to be kept by the campers. All medication will be turned in at the camp office upon arrival. No physical contact allowed between male and female campers. Any camper failing to comply with the camp rules will be sent home at the individual or church's expense.

LADIES' CODE OF CONDUCT

Ladies are required to wear modest skirts and "skirt-appearing" culottes that fall to the bottom of the knee, including any slits. Modest loose-fitting shirts and blouses only. Only one-piece bathing suits underneath culottes and a dark-colored t-shirt will be allowed for swimming. No sun dresses, tank tops, sleeveless shirts, or cropped tops. No pants, gauchos, or shorts. Casual dress clothes are required for evening services.

GENTLEMEN'S CODE OF CONDUCT

The following types of clothing are NOT to be worn: see-through or mesh-like shirts, sleeveless shirts, sweat pants, oversized pants worn low on the hips, modern or faddish style clothing. Jeans or casual pants ARE allowed. Knee-length cut-offs or shorts with a dark t-shirt will be allowed for swimming and sports. A collared shirt is required for mealtime and evening services. Men will not be allowed to wear earrings, necklaces, or any piercing. Hair must be off the ears and collar, and no dyed or carved hair styles.

Any area of question will be determined by the camp director
