LESSONS FROM A RICH FOOL

“But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?” (Luke 12:20)

This sobering verse gives, in a nutshell, God’s evaluation of people whose dominating concern is the accumulation of material possessions. Such a person is, by the Lord’s own testimony, a fool.

But before the man in this parable became a covetous fool, he first became a self-centered clod, interested only in his own desires. In the verses comprising his monologue (Luke 12:17-19), he used the personal pronouns “I” and “my” no less than eleven times, and then even addressed himself using the pronoun “thou” or “thine” twice more.

“My” is the devil’s pronoun. It was Satan who first said “I.” “I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: . . . I will be like the most High” (Isaiah 14:13-14). Lucifer’s primeval, self-seeking covetousness brought rebellion and sin into the angelic host, and then into the human family. Ever since his fall he has used this deadly sin of self-centeredness to keep men away from God and to lead them into all kinds of other overpowering sins.

In the case of the rich man, his pampering of self had led him into a life of such greed and covetousness that he was still concerned only with his own personal comfort (“eating and drinking”) right up to the day of his death. He “thought within himself” (Luke 12:17), no thought whatever to God’s will or the fact that all sessions really belonged to God. Multitudes over the ages have been overtaken by this same sin of self-centered covetousness, perhaps never more pervasively than in modern America, even among American Christians. To anyone of such covetous spirit, the day may soon come when the Lord will say: “Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee.” HMM

WITNESSING IDEAS WHILE SHOPPING...

There are endless ideas for tract uses while shopping. Here are some of the most popular ideas.

- Hand a tract to the cashier
- Leave tracts on the shelves in the stores
- Place tracts in the dressing rooms
- Place a tract in the pockets of the clothes
- Hand tracts to the passengers on the elevators
- Leave a tract next to the handrail on the escalator
- Place a tract under the windshield wiper on the cars in the parking lot

PARTNERS RISKING THEIR LIVES TO BRING BIBLES TO MUSLIMS

Since launching in August, dozens of churches have joined the Bible4Muslims 2009 campaign and we are already preparing to ship Scriptures before the end of the year to various countries. Thank you for your part in this massive effort.

Other churches are planning to receive their offering in the early part of 2010. FirstBible International is involved in several translation projects for languages of Muslims that have previously not had the Word of God. Part of our 2010 program will be to provide these Scriptures. We are asking God to bring many churches to join us in making Him known to Muslims.

There are committed believers throughout Central and South Asia, the Middle East and parts of Africa quietly distributing the Scriptures to Muslims. One of these groups, which I cannot name for security reasons, smuggles Bibles through the mountains on donkeys to a safe house where they are picked up by believers and personally given to Muslims seeking to know the truth.

They risk their lives and those of their families to do this. Three months ago, three men were caught and have been imprisoned and are awaiting their trials which will determine either execution or imprisonment. My heart goes out to them and their families.

I mention this to simply point out to you the seriousness of what we are doing. Please don't take it lightly. Satan is opposed to the Word of God reaching those in darkness. So, please join us in praying for these three brothers, their families and set aside a Sunday to receive an offering for Scriptures that will go to Muslims.

WHAT IS BIBLES4MUSLIMS?

For 1,400 years, the church has been neglecting, avoiding and running away from Islam. But now, their time has come. God is at work among Muslims...and Believers throughout America are becoming purposefully involved in this movement of God through Bibles4Muslims.

This strategic project is a cooperative effort of churches across America to provide the Scriptures for those in the Muslim world. This year, our church along with hundreds of other churches will be designating a special Sunday to collect gifts and offerings to be used for publishing and distributing Bibles in Muslim countries.

Today, there are fewer Bibles available to the world's 1.2 billion Muslims than for any other major people group. Most Muslims have never even seen a Bible, let alone have a copy of their own.

For several years, a group of ministries has been operating a secret distribution network in the Middle East, South Asia and Central Asia. This work has been done at great risk to local believers who are committed to presenting the Gospel to the followers of Islam. Thousands of Bibles have already been discretely placed in the hands of Muslims... yet millions more are needed.

You can make the difference. Please help us make the Scriptures available to those who have never had a chance to hear the Gospel. It only takes $5.00 to place a Bible in the hands of a Muslim.

We are committed to giving the Word of God to the Muslim World. Will you join us?
