TITHING BY FAITH

(Friday Church News Notes, June 25, 2010)

The only way to practice tithing effectively is to practice it by faith. We must believe God's promises even during times of difficulties. And we must remember that God tests faith to see if it is real and to make it grow stronger (James 1:2-4). Many times if a Christian decides to begin tithing, he will have some financial problem to test his decision. The late John R. Rice told about an evangelist named Kuykendahl in Texas in the early 20th century. He had a circuit riding ministry and the offerings were very small, so much so that his large family had a difficult time making ends meet. One year a wealthy businessman visited the area to share his testimony in several churches, and evangelist Kuykendahl was his host, carrying him from meeting to meeting in his buggy. Among other things, the businessman challenged the people to learn to tithe. As they were traveling along, the businessman asked the evangelist if he believed in tithing. He replied, "Yes, I would love to tithe, but I am very poor and must take care of my large family." The businessman responded, "I will make you an offer. If you will tithe for an entire year, I will act as your guarantor. If at any time during the year you find that you can't pay your bills and don't know where to turn, just contact me and I will send you the necessary money. I am a wealthy man, and I am a man of my word." Kuykendahl enthusiastically replied, "I will gladly take you up on this offer." The evangelist kept his word and tithed faithfully, but he never had to contact the businessman. At the end of the 12 months, the evangelist was meditating on what had happened. God had richly blessed him that year and had met every need. People gave him more than ever, and the family experienced many special blessings. As he contemplated these things, his heart was suddenly smitten when he realized that he had readily trusted the word of a businessman but he had not been willing to trust the Word of the Living God, who had made even greater promises! "Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again" (Luke 6:38).
