TRACT MINISTRY

Nothing costs less, goes farther, lasts longer or says it better than a Gospel tract. But what is a tract? In short, a tract is a tool that is; to the point, relevant, arrests our attention, contains the Gospel and takes us closer to Christ. Tracts are indispensable.

Think about their strategic use as you go out into the world each day. When you make them part of your spiritual repertoire, God will give you many opportunities to share. A tract is so wonderfully crafted that it can go to work even if a child finds one on the floor. Regardless of your spiritual maturity or experience in sharing the Gospel, tracts are indispensable tools.

Commit yourself to our Tract Month endeavor. Here are suggestions for developing confidence as you get involved in our tract ministry.

PRAY - You cannot win anyone to Christ, neither can a tract. Only the Holy Spirit can do that. Be sure to pray. Pray you will be a faithful and effective ambassador of the Gospel. Pray the Holy Spirit will speak to the recipient's heart so that he or she may understand the message and receive Christ.

GIVE APPROPRIATE TRACTS - A tract should fit the needs of the person it is given to. For example, don't give a tract on the Christian home to a single person. Always carry several different types of tracts with you--so you can match the message to the person.

TALK...AND LISTEN - Kindly greet the person before offering your tract. Ask the person to commit to reading the tract.

MAKE EYE CONTACT AND SMILE - Genuine smiles are rare these days, but they can create an opening for giving a tract. With love in your heart and a smile on your face, ask kindly, "May I give you something to read?" If a person refuses or wants to argue, remain pleasant.

USE OUR TOP-QUALITY TRACTS - Our church invests in the best tracts available. They are well-illustrated tracts and grab people's attention. Our tracts are well-written, contain a clear Gospel presentation and move the reader toward a decision for Christ.

FIND NEW WAYS TO USE TRACTS - Include tracts in business and personal letters, bill payments, or in books you loan to friends. Offer one to your waitperson when eating out. Take tracts with you when you travel. Keep them near your front door for visitors. Keep a good supply in your car or purse. Be original. Never leave home without a tract.

SET A GOAL FOR HOW MANY TRACTS YOU'LL GIVE OUT - You don't need to start by distributing thousands of tracts a week. Set a realistic, but challenging goal and you will be amazed as you see the Lord bless your efforts.

Our Goal for 2011 =
20,000 tracts distributed
