Dear Mountain Lake Independent Baptist Church;

Thank you for sharing your Pastor with us for the past 2 weeks; it has been a blessing beyond anything we imagined. Our church needed this time, and 15 other churches were greatly impacted. Pastor preached his heart out and many decisions were made that will be felt for years to come. We are looking forward to his next visit, and seeing some of you with him.

My family needed this time with them as well. I made sure we played as hard as we preached, and that God was glorified in it all.

Thank you for the tremendous love gift to our family, we have absolutely no needs because of the faithfulness of our supporting churches. Thank you for the gift from your church's children to our girls. Our girls were glowing with excitement and cannot wait to meet everyone of them on our furlough next year. They collected a lot of shells to share with the boys and girls in your church, and they got them some New Zealand candy they love.

We continue to pray for you and your church, that you continue to have a great ministry as you faithfully mind the Lord.

God is good... all the time! - Lewis, Kim, Deborah, & Elizabeth Howell
