

Amanda's Story

In the summer of 2011, God called Zach and I to China to help missionary Gene Harmon. Zach was the principal of an underground christian school and I was an English teacher. We were also involved in a variety of other ministries. We attended an underground Chinese church with about 300 people, and baptisms were held in our home every other month. We worked with the Chinese teenagers in the church, with Zach teaching a weekly Bible study. Another ministry we were involved in was smuggling Bibles from Hong Kong into China. While we were in Asia we had the chance to go to the Philippines and help missionaries Carl and Michelle Gormley. Working in China taught us a great deal, helped us appreciate America even more, and strengthened our faith in God. Our original plan was to stay in China for another year but God had other plans.
